

Last updated: 14 December, 2020

PRE-SHOW INFORMATION

This document contains detailed information about the show in order to describe what you should expect when attending. This includes information about the plot, content warnings, the space, lighting and sound, audience participation, and further access information.

All of the information in this document was correct at the time of publishing. As the show is in development, more information will be available closer to the time of performance.

Please note that by discussing the content of the show, the below information will contain key plot points and descriptions of what happens in the performance. If you would like to receive elements of this information but avoid these spoilers, please scroll past 'About the Show' and 'Content Warnings'.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact our Box Office team:

Email: boxoffice@bushtheatre.co.uk

Phone number: 020 8743 5050

Overflow

By Travis Alabanza

About the show:

- The show is a monologue from the perspective of Rosie, a trans woman in her late twenties.
- The show takes place in a toilet cubicle, where Rosie has retreated whilst trying to escape an unnamed threat.
- Rosie tells us stories about her life in relation to gender, friendship, and overcoming fear by finding the support you need.

Content Warnings:

- Strong language (swearing)
- Sexual references
- Smoking on stage
- References to transphobia and use of a transphobic slur
- References to threat of misogynistic or sexual violence
- References to misogyny
- References to death
- References to death and drowning
- References to drug use
- References to alcohol and drunkenness
- References of body dysmorphia

Lighting and Sound:

- This show contains strobe lights and loud noises.
- This show may contain haze.

Audience Participation:

- There will be some direct address to the audience. There will be no audience participation in the show.

Access Information:

- The running time for this show is 55 mins.
- Digital Freesheets will be available in your pre-show email that will give more information about the show, cast and creatives.