Invisible By Nikhil Parmar

The Space:

- This show will take place in the Studio, which is the smaller of our two performance spaces.
- The maximum capacity is 60. Access to the Studio is on the ground floor and the floor is level.
- There is step free access to the front row.
- A wheelchair space is available to book for every show.
- Please note that due to the intimate nature of the performance space latecomers may not be admitted, and there may be no readmission once the performance has begun.
- As the show is in development, more information will be available closer to the time of performance.

Access Information:

- We are using multiple entrances to the Bush Theatre. Entrance C takes you directly to the Studio. It is accessible via a ramp suitable for wheelchair users and buggies to the right of the building, or via three steps.

- There is an automatic double glass door. From here the Box Office is to the left and the Library Café and Bar and Gianni and Michael Alen-Buckley Script Library are beyond the Box Office around the corner.
- The main entrance on Uxbridge Road at the front of the building through the porch up some steps is being mostly used as an exit at present. If you do enter this way, the theatre's Library Café and Bar is straight ahead, the Gianni and Michael Alen-Buckley Script Library is to the left, and the Box Office to the right.
- Access to the Studio is on the ground floor and the floor is level.
- The toilets are situated on the first floor and are accessible via stairs or the lift.
- There is also an accessible toilet on the ground floor beneath the stairs which access patrons have priority to use.
- The Bush Theatre aims to be as accessible as possible in everything we do. The whole building is fully accessible for wheelchair users, a hearing loop is available, and Assistance Dogs are welcome at every performance. Complimentary tickets for essential companions are also available.

About the show:

- Invisible is a one man show centering the life of Zayan. He is a struggling actor and newly separated father of a little girl named Sienna.
- Discovering his ex-girlfriend is now engaged to his successful classmate exacerbates his self-destructive tendencies like deciding to deal drugs for money instead of attending his auditions.
- The play explores what it means to feel invisible amongst your loved ones and wider society from the perspective of a person of colour. It explores the idea of how being “othered” in a society can further contribute to this feeling.

Content Warnings:

- Contains use of strong language
- Scenes of violence
- Themes of bullying
- Themes of racism
- References to and discussion of drug dealing
- Discussion of grief

Lighting and Sound:

- May contain flashing lights, loud noises and haze effects.
- As the show is in development, more information will be available closer to the time of performance.
