The Space:

- This show will take place in the Holloway Theatre, which is the larger of our two performance spaces. For this performance, the space will be in a 'thrust' arrangement, meaning the seats are arranged on three sides of the stage (see below).
- The maximum capacity is 195. Access to the Holloway Theatre is on the ground floor and the floor is level.

- There is step free access to row A in blocks A, B and C.
- A wheelchair space is available to book for every show.
- Please note that due to the intimate nature of the performance space latecomers may not be admitted, and we cannot guarantee readmission once the performance has begun.
- As the show is in development, more information will be available closer to the time of performance.

Access Information:

- There are two main entrances to the Bush Theatre building.
- The first entrance is via the Bush terrace to the right hand side of the building, accessible via a ramp suitable for wheelchair users and buggies to the right of the building, or via three steps. There is an automatic double glass door. From here the Box Office is to the left and the Library Café and Bar and Gianni and Michael Alen-Buckley Script Library are beyond the Box Office around the corner. The Holloway Theatre entrance is just beyond the bar and to the right of the Script Library.
- If you enter through the front entrance on Uxbridge Road through the porch up some steps, the theatre's Library Café and Bar is straight ahead on the right, the Gianni and Michael Alen-Buckley Script Library is to the left, and the Box Office to the right. The entrance to the Holloway Theatre is straight ahead on the left.
- Access to the Holloway Theatre is on the ground floor and the floor is level.
- The toilets are situated on the first floor and are accessible via stairs or the lift.
- There is also an accessible toilet on the ground floor beneath the stairs which access patrons have priority to use.
- The Bush Theatre aims to be as accessible as possible in everything we do. The whole building is accessible for wheelchair users, a hearing loop is available, and Assistance Dogs are welcome at every performance. Complimentary tickets for essential companions are also available.
