

A street scene at dusk. On the right, a red brick building has a black sign with yellow text that reads "Bush Theatre". Below the sign, the words "THE REAL ONES" are written in large, white, sans-serif capital letters. At the bottom, the text "Self-care guide & content warnings" is written in white. In the background, there are red double-decker buses, people walking, and a dog on a leash. A man is leaning against a brick wall talking on a phone, and a woman is standing nearby also on a phone. A large red and white poster is visible on the right side of the building.

Bush Theatre

THE REAL ONES

Self-care guide
& content warnings

What is this document?

This document contains information about ways to look after yourself before you watch, while you're at the theatre or after the play.

It also contains detailed information about the show in order to describe what you should expect when attending. This includes information about the content warnings, the space, lighting and sound, and further access information.

Please note that by discussing the content of the show, the below information will contain key plot points and descriptions of what happens in the performance.

We hope the information and resources in this document will help audiences experiencing the show, and support planning if you are concerned about your visit.

All of the information here was accurate when we put this guide together. As the production is in development, the details may change and we will update as soon as possible.

Contents

What is self-care? ---- 3

About the show ---- 4

Content guidance + Lighting and Sound ---- 5

Helplines and support ---- 6

Self-care suggestions ---- 7

The performance space ---- 9

Access information ---- 10

What is self-care?

Self-care is a choice to listen to our needs and look after ourselves, so we are able to keep going and live our best lives, despite the difficulties we experience in life and how they make us feel.

Thank you to Clean Break for bringing their care practices, including Self-Care Guides, to the Bush Theatre during our co-production of Favour (2022) Clean Break is a theatre company working with women with lived experience of the criminal justice system or at risk of entering it. cleanbreak.org.uk

“The concept of self-care comes from the Black Feminist movement. Self-care is important because it’s about recognising that we experience discrimination and oppression because of how others react to who we are, or what we’ve experienced.” - Clean Break

In writing this document, we were inspired by recent approaches taken by several other companies, especially the Nouveau Riche and Royal Court teams.

About the show

The below information contains key plot points.
Skip this section if you want to avoid spoilers.

The Real Ones is a new drama following two childhood friends, both South Asian, and the different directions their lives take as they grow into adults.

Neelam and Zaid are friends from school. We follow their friendship across 20 years. It is an exploration of long-term friendship and having a platonic soulmate who is supposed to stick with you into adulthood. Neelam is the first person that Zaid comes out to, Neelam shares with Zaid about her early sexual experience, which others shamed her for.

Years after their heady student days, things are far from what they expected. Zaid's life has stalled – half out the closet, living at home and still chasing the dream. Neelam's life has taken a completely different path, as she chooses to prioritise her own happiness.

It explores the way we change as we grow up, the dynamics of mixed-heritage relationships, different versions of what it means to be othered within your community, and most of all the importance of friendship.

Content guidance

This show contains:

- Use of strong language
- Intermittent references to sexual violence
- Depiction and discussion of abuses of power and sexual exploitation
- Depiction of drug and alcohol consumption
- Themes of racism, homophobia and mental illness

Lighting and Sound

This show may contain:

- Loud noises
- Flashing lights
- Haze effects

This production is still in development. More information will be available nearer the time of performance.

Helplines & Support

Mind

Provides advice and support to empower anyone experiencing a mental health problem.

mind.org.uk or 0300 123 3393

SurvivorsUK

Provides counselling, practical help and community for male and non-binary survivors of sexual violence, including the National Male Survivors Online Helpline – a webchat and SMS service.

survivorsuk.org or 020 3322 1860

Family Lives

Provides targeted early intervention and crisis support to families. familylives.org.uk or 0808 800 2222

Nafsiyat

Provides short-term intercultural therapy in over 20 different languages, to individuals, groups, and couples.

nafsiyat.org.uk or 020 7263 6947

Hub of Hope

UK-wide mental health service database. Lets you search for local, peer, community, charity, private and NHS mental health support. You can filter results to find specific kinds of support. hubofhope.co.uk

Samaritans

Provides 24/7 emotional support to anyone in emotional distress, struggling to cope, or at risk of suicide.

samaritans.org or 116 123

Self-care suggestions

Watch with someone

Bring a friend or someone you trust to watch the play with you.

Talk to someone

If you find the content distressing try talking to someone you trust, or try one of the organisations suggested above.

Breathe

Breathing is a great way to help you feel calm. Try breathing in for four seconds, holding your breath for four seconds, exhaling for four seconds and holding again. Repeat this for as long as you need.

Find some nature

Look out of the window or go for a walk if you can; experiencing nature can help us feel grounded.

Shepherd's Bush Green is only a minute's walk away, and the Bush has a terrace with outdoor seating.

Know if you need to step away

There is nothing wrong with deciding this isn't for you or it's too much.

Leave the auditorium, walk away, take a break. Do what feels right for you.

Self-care suggestions

Try a grounding exercise

Grounding exercises are things you can do to bring yourself into contact with the present moment.

There are many ways you can do this. Here are some ideas:

1. Notice five things you can see, four things you can feel, three things you can hear, two things you can smell and one thing you can taste.
2. Sit with your feet on the floor and back against your chair and either gently tap each leg or cross your arms and tap your shoulders.
3. Wash your hands or drink some water.

The performance space

This show will take place in the Holloway Theatre, which is the larger of our two performance spaces.

Access to the Holloway Theatre is on the ground floor and the floor is level. There is step free access to row A in all banks. A wheelchair space is available to book for every show.

Please note that due to the intimate nature of the performance space latecomers may not be admitted, and we cannot guarantee readmission once the performance has begun.

More information about the layout and design of the performance space will be available nearer the time of the performance.

Access information

The Bush Theatre building has two theatre spaces – the Holloway Theatre and the Studio – as well as our Library Bar. There are two entrances to the building:

The first entrance is via the Bush terrace to the right hand side of the building, accessible via a ramp suitable for wheelchair users and buggies or via three steps. There is a red automatic double glass door.

From here the Box Office is to the left and the Library Bar and Gianni and Michael Alen-Buckley Script Library are beyond the Box Office around the corner. The Holloway Theatre entrance is just beyond the bar and to the right of the Script Library. The Studio is immediately to the right, down a corridor with floor-to-ceiling windows.

Access information

If you enter through the front entrance on Uxbridge Road through the porch up some steps, the theatre's Library Bar is straight ahead on the right, the Script Library is to the left, and the Box Office and Studio to the right. The entrance to the Holloway Theatre is straight ahead on the left.

The toilets are situated on the first floor and are accessible via stairs or the lift. There is also an accessible toilet on the ground floor beneath the stairs which access patrons have priority to use.

The Bush Theatre aims to be as accessible as possible in everything we do. The whole building is accessible for wheelchair users, a hearing loop is available, and Assistance Dogs are welcome at every performance.

Discounted tickets for disabled bookers and free tickets for essential companions are available.

If you have any questions or would like more information, don't hesistate to get in touch with our team:

email:
boxoffice@bushtheatre.co.uk

phone:
020 8743 5050